G R S 58
Previous references

1907
(Education)

File No 150—09

Serial Nos 1

Later references

GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT

Serial Nos 1

Part B for Oct 1909

SUBJECT

Recording appreciation of the services of Mr H J Bhabha, I.C.S. of Bdy.

1- GD no C 16(a) 24 10.09

GPB 8 000—7 4-07

GRS 11] 1909 10

GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT

(Education)

NOTES

150

File No 09

FILE HEADING

Recording the services of Mr H.J. Bhabha - DS of Education in Mysore - on the question of retirement

From

No	Dated	Received

Diary No	Enclos	Spare Copies	Serial No 1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER

NOTES AND ORDERS

NOTES—First sheet

GPB—30 000—3 4 07

Encl. after Just Mysore
LL (4)

ORDER - C 16. 16a Camp Mysore 24-10-09
Edn

Mr H J Bhabha M A , F M U , F B U ,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore,

having retired with effect from the 1st

November 1909, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja take this opportunity of placing on record their appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the Education Department of the State

2 He entered the Department in November 1876 as Vice Principal of the Central College, Bangalore, and was appointed Head Master of the Maharaja's College, Mysore, in June 1884 ~~After 14 years' efficient work in the tutorial line as above,~~ He became Secretary to Government in the Education Department in April 1890, and 5 years later, Inspector General of Education

3 During the period of nearly 20 years that he has been in charge of these offices, education in all its branches has made very considerable advance . The number of Primary

See 4
Please give letter
23 Oct 09

Two fair copies required
by 4 pm tomorrow

Rec'd
22.10.09

2

schools for boys has risen from 1143 to 1776, for girls from 55 to 214, Secondary schools for boys from 216 to 245, for girls from 17 to 54, Industrial, technical and special schools from 1 to 24; and the total number of scholars in Public Institutions from 66,501 to 1,13,257 Among the measures which marked the term of his office as Head of the Education Department, were the introduction of Manual Training and Kindergarten instruction into the schools of the State, the introduction of religious and moral instruction in schools, the improvement of elementary education, which has latterly been made free throughout the State, and the increase of the minimum pay of village school-masters to Rs 10 per mensem

4 The Government desire to ~~have in conclusion great pleasure in~~ acknowledge his loyal co-operation, ~~his zeal~~, and ~~his~~ untiring devotion to the interests of the Department under his charge

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore — Local Fund and Sanitary (Education) dated 24th October 1909

No C 16—Ldn dated Mysore 24th October 1909

Order —Mr H J Bhabha MA FMU FBU Inspector General of Education in Mysore having been permitted to retire with effect from the 1st November 1909 the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore take this opportunity of placing on record their appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him in the Education Department of the State

2 He entered the Department in November 1876 as Vice Principal of the Central College Bangalore and was appointed Head Master of the Maharaja's College, Mysore in June 1884 He became Secretary to Government in the Education Department in April 1890 and five years later Inspector General of Education

3 During the period of nearly twenty years that he has been in charge of these offices education in all its branches has made very considerable advance The number of Primary Schools for boys has risen from 1 143 to 1 776 for girls from 55 to 214 Secondary Schools for boys from 216 to 245 for girls from 17 to 54 Industrial Technical and special schools from 1 to 24 and the total number of scholars in Public Institutions from 66,501 to 113 257 Among the measures which marked the term of his office as Head of the Education Department were the introduction of Manual Training and Kindergarten instruction into the Schools of the State the introduction of Religious and Moral instruction in Schools the improvement of Elementary education which has latterly been made free throughout the State and the increase of the minimum pay of Village School Masters to Rs 10 per mensem.

4 In bidding Mr Bhabha farewell the Government desire to acknowledge his loyal co operation zeal and untiring devotion to the interests of the Department under his charge

K S CHANDRASEKHARA AIYAR,
Secy to Govt Gen & Per Depts

To—The Inspector General of Education in Mysore
H J Bhabha Esq MA

End —C V